

Penang retiree strikes RM21.3 million Toto 4D Jackpot

KUCHING: A retired renovation contractor from Penang won the RM21.3 million Toto 4D Jackpot 1 on Dec 8 by betting on the car registration numbers of his family members.

The 64-year-old winner said he had been betting on the pair of car registration numbers – 5841 and 1562 – for years without fail, according to STM Lottery in a statement yesterday.

“I feel relieved when the numbers that I have been betting on persistently have finally come out as the winning numbers. I immediately spotted the numbers when they emerged as the Toto 4D's second and third prize.

“I was speechless and overjoyed when I checked my ticket against the results,” he was quoted saying in the statement.

The winner said his newfound wealth guarantees him a comfortable retirement, and that he would place the winnings in a fixed deposit to ensure a steady generation of income.

The total RM21.5 million Toto 4D Jackpot 1 was shared by the winner, who walked away with a whopping RM21,314,124, and another i-System winner from Selangor who won RM203,962.75.

STM Lottery added that a total of RM6.15 million Toto 4D Jackpot 1 was partially won from the total RM20.1 million jackpot on Nov 24.

The winnings were shared by four i-System ticket winners from Sabah, Sarawak and Penang.

A winner from Penang claimed the largest portion of the winnings, amounting to RM4,473,774.75.

The 39-year-old winner, who works as a driver, said his pair of winning numbers was derived from his car registration numbers 9666 and 1018.

“I work as a driver and my car has rewarded me for my hard work. I am very happy to use the winnings to start my own business,” he was quoted saying in the statement.
